OPERATION ON AN ELEPHANT. During the late visit to Hull of Womb well's menagerie, the elephant "Chubby' underwent an operation which, from at herelty and success, deserves a place among The Howard Association, in view of the aw. surgical records. For twelve of fifteen ful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual months previously, a tumor had been gathergeon as a charitable act, worthy of their name, to the tumor, or the tumor of the elephant; for open a Dispensary for the treatment of this the larger grew the one the smaller grew class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give the other. Chubby sickened, lost his appe evident to his friends that unless the tumor and Chubby dissolved partnership, the former would soon be the sole representative of the firm. Change of airwas tried; but the tumor only derived advantage. Medical advice was called in; but, alas, it proved another

Nine famous leeches, at nine various stations, tried their juleps and catholicons, but in vain; no one daring to have recourse to the koife with such a patient. Such was the state of matters when Chubby paid us his forewell visit, as it was supposed, last Hull fair. His friends, as a last resource, applied to one of our townsmen, a veterinary surgoun, 500 R. CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Mr. Tom B. Hyde, Jun. Mr. Hyde went, eaw and boldly resolved to use the lancet .-The operation was performed a few days alter the fair, and lasted two hours; Chubby undergoing it with such fortitude and good sense as could only be derived from a consciousness of its object. The tumor, when removed, weighed five pounds, and one of the fangs had to be searched out with the knife for a foot down the thigh. The operation proved eminently successful. Every tresh bulletin announced his improving health till the latter end of November, when Mr. Hyde pronounced his patient thoroughly restored, and capable of returning to business. Chutby at once took the train to join his friends Messrs, Wombwell and Co.; and when we last heard of him his appetite and good looks were the theme of general admiration .- East-
